BRIGHT WORLD TRADING CO LTD & ORS v. DIRECTOR GENERAL OF INLAND REVENUE & ANOR AND OTHER CASES

HIGH COURT SABAH & SARAWAK, LABUAN
WONG SIONG TUNG J
[JUDICIAL REVIEW NOS: LBN-25JR-75-5-2021 (HC), LBN-25JR-18-4-2021 (HC) & LBN-25-17-6-2021 (HC)]
18 MAY 2023

Abstract – The Labuan Business Activity Tax Act 1990 ('LBATA') does not empower or authorise the Minister of Finance or anybody to further sub-delegate the power to make regulations under ss. 2B(1)(b) and 21 of the LBATA. Strictly construed, the Labuan Business Activity Tax (Requirements for Labuan Business Activity) Regulations 2018 and Labuan Business Activity Tax (Requirements for Labuan Business Activity) 2018 (Amendment) Regulations 2020 are ultra vires and invalid, therefore making the applicants Labuan entities as specified in the Schedule referred to under s. 2B(1)(a) of the LBATA that can carry on business activities without any substance requirements under s. 2B(1)(a) lawfully prescribed by any valid regulations made and in force at the material times. The applicants in this case are therefore entitled to the benefit of being subjected to be charged to tax at a lower rate under the LBATA, and not under the higher tax rate under the Income Tax Act 1967.

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW: Judicial review – Certiorari – Application for – Applicants adversely affected by decisions made by Minister of Finance concerning issues arising from Labuan Business Activity Tax (Requirements for Labuan Business Activity) Regulations 2018 and Labuan Business Activity Tax (Requirements for Labuan Business Activity) 2018 (Amendment) Regulations 2020 – Legality of Regulations – Whether ultra vires and invalid – Whether statutory power exercised only by body or officer on whom it had been conferred – Whether applicants entities specified in Schedule referred to under s. 2B(1)(a) of Labuan Business Activity Tax Act 1990 ('LBATA') – Whether only subjected to be charged tax under s. 4 of LBATA and not under Income Tax Act 1967 – Whether applicants had vested rights as entities with business activities not required to satisfy substance requirements

REVENUE LAW: Tax – Assessment – Application for judicial review by applicants adversely affected by decisions made by Minister of Finance concerning issues arising from Labuan Business Activity Tax (Requirements for Labuan Business Activity) Regulations 2018 and Labuan Business Activity Tax (Requirements for Labuan Business Activity) 2018 (Amendment) Regulations 2020 – Legality of Regulations

– Whether ultra vires and invalid – Whether statutory power exercised only by body or officer on whom it had been conferred – Whether applicants entities specified in Schedule referred to under s. 2B(1)(a) of Labuan Business Activity Tax Act 1990 ('LBATA') – Whether only subjected to be charged tax under s. 4 of LBATA and not under Income Tax Act 1967 – Whether applicants had vested rights as entities with business activities not required to satisfy substance requirements

The applicants in these 103 applications for judicial review were companies incorporated in the Federal Territory of Labuan under the Labuan Companies Act 1990 ('LCA') who were said to be adversely affected by the alleged decisions made by the Minister of Finance ('MOF') in his letter dated 1 April 2021. They all concerned the legal issues arising from the Labuan Business Activity Tax (Requirements for Labuan Business Activity) Regulations 2018 ('2018 Regulations') and the Labuan Business Activity Tax (Requirements for Labuan Business Activity) 2018 (Amendment) Regulations 2020 ('2020 Regulations'), particularly concerning the entitlement of these applicants to be charged a lower tax at 3% on their chargeable profits under s. 4 of the Labuan Business Activity Tax Act 1990 ('LBATA'). The parties concerned have agreed that the decision of the court made in the three lead cases shall apply and bind all cases under the respective categories. The Offshore Companies Act 1990 ('Act 441') was enacted to provide for the incorporation, registration and administration of Labuan companies and foreign Labuan companies and for matters connected therewith while the Labuan Offshore Business Activity Tax Act 1990 ('Act 445') was enacted to provide for the imposition, assessment and collection of tax on a Labuan business activity carried on by a Labuan entity in or from Labuan and for matters connected therewith. Under Act 445, an offshore company as defined therein carrying on an offshore business activity which was an offshore trading activity can elect to pay tax at the rate of 3% of the net profit under s. 4 of the said Act or to pay a flat tax of RM20,000 under s. 7 of the said Act. Act 441 was amended and renamed as the LCA by Offshore Companies (Amendment) Act 2010 while Act 445 was also amended and renamed as the LBATA. Subsequently, various amendments were made to the LBATA. Section 76 of the Finance Act 2018 ('Act 812') deleted s. 7 of the LBATA, thus abolished the option to pay a flat tax of RM20,000 which by s. 71(2) of the Finance Act 2019 ('Act 823') came into effect for the year of assessment 2020 and the years thereafter. The effect following the amendments made by Act 812 and Act 823 was that a Labuan entity engaged in Labuan business activity was subject to a tax of 3% on its chargeable profits for the specified year of assessment under s. 4 of the LBATA without the option to pay a flat tax of RM20,000. On 31 December 2018, pursuant to s. 21(1)(a) of the LBATA then read together with s. 2B(1)(b) of the LBATA, the Deputy Prime Minister promulgated the 2018 Regulations which came into effect on 1 January 2019. The 2018 Regulations provided a list of 21 Labuan entities that carried out the different kinds of business activities as described and prescribed each of them with the minimum number of full time employees and the minimum amount of annual operating expenditure in Labuan ('substance requirements') for the purpose of the Labuan business activity of the Labuan entity as required under s. 2B(1)(b) of the LBATA to entitle to be subjected to a lower tax at 3% on their chargeable profits under s. 4 of the LBATA. On 23 December 2020, the MOF further made the 2020 Regulations and the provisions therein were deemed to have come into operation retrospectively on 1 January 2019. The applicants in Category A and Category B along with their respective business activities were not listed in the list of Labuan entities specified under the 2018 Regulations as amended by the 2020 Regulations. Essentially, their business activities did not fall within any of the 22 Labuan entities outlined in the 2018 Regulations as amended by the 2020 Regulations. The applicants in Category C claimed that they were not listed among the 22 Labuan entities specified in the 2018 Regulation as amended by the 2020 Regulations and that their business activities, categorised as 'Labuan non-trading activity' were granted tax exemption by the MOF under s. 2A of the LBATA prior to the enactment of these regulations. Subsequently, the Deputy Director of the Inland Revenue Board issued a letter dated 5 February 2021 to the Association of Labuan Trust Companies ('ALTC') of which the applicants were members, stating that the 2020 Regulations 'had caused Labuan entity carrying on 'other trading' activities not to be included in the meaning of 'Labuan Entity' under s. 2B(1) of the LBATA and were required to submit Tax Return Form (ITRF) under the Income Tax Act 1967 ('ITA')'. The MOF endorsed and accepted the stance or position put forth by the Deputy Director of the Inland Revenue Board, stating that Labuan business activities not listed in the Schedule to the 2018 Regulations, as amended by the 2020 Regulations, would automatically be subject to income tax under the ITA and thus required to submit ITRF. Consequently, the applicants were no longer eligible for the lower tax rate of 3% on their chargeable profits under s. 4 of the LBATA. Thereafter, all the applicants filed the applications seeking leave to apply for judicial review of the decision as they contended made by the MOF in his letter dated 1 April 2021, which were granted. Following these developments, on 19 November 2021, the MOF made the Labuan Business Activity Tax (Requirements for Labuan Business Activity) Regulations 2021 ('2021 Regulations') which revoked and replaced the 2018 Regulations. The 2021 Regulations was made to come into operation or into force retrospectively on 1 January 2019. Based on the 2021 Regulations, the applicants in Category A and Category B would fall within item 20 of the First Schedule of the 2021 Regulations retrospectively. In order to be eligible for the lower tax rate under the LBATA for years of assessment 2019 and 2020, they would be required to meet the prescribed substance requirements as set out in the 2021 Regulations. Based on the 2021 Regulations, the applicants in Category C would fall and be categorised under item 2 of the Second Schedule thereunder. Retrospectively, they would be required to meet the substance requirements prescribed under item 2 in order to be eligible for the lower tax rate of 3% under the LBATA for the years of assessment 2019 and 2020.

Held (granting respective orders to applicants):

(1) In accordance with the maxim delegatus non potest delegare, a statutory power must be exercised only by the body or officer on whom it had been conferred, unless sub-delegation of the power is authorised by express words or necessary implications. Statutory provisions in respect of sub-delegation are strictly construed. There is no provision in LBATA to empower or authorise the Minister of Finance or anybody to further sub-delegate the power to make regulations under s. 2B(1)(b) and s. 21 of the LBATA. The power conferred upon the Minister of Finance to make regulations to prescribe the substance requirements under s. 2B(1)(b) and s. 21 of the LBATA could not be further sub-delegated to any other persons. Strictly construed, the 2018 Regulations were therefore ultra vires and invalid. That being the case, the 2020 Regulations made by the Minister of Finance to amend the 2018 Regulations which was not validly made in the first place, had no effect too. In the hearing of their applications for judicial review, the applicants were not precluded from calling into question, the legality of these regulations. (paras 55-61)

(2) As the 2018 Regulations and 2020 Regulations were not validly made, as at the time the Deputy Director of Inland Revenue Board issued the impugned letter dated 5 February 2021 and at the time the MOF issued the impugned letter dated 1 April 2021, the applicants were Labuan entities as specified in the Schedule referred to under s. 2B(1)(a) of the LBATA carried on Labuan business activities without any substance requirements under s. 2B(1)(b) lawfully prescribed by any valid regulations made and in force at the material times. At the material times, the applicants therefore, were only subject to be charged to tax under s. 4 of the LBATA and not under the ITA by s. 3B thereunder. That being the case, the letter dated 5 February 2021 issued by the DGIR relying on the invalid 2018 Regulations and requiring the applicants to submit the ITRF under ITA to be charged to tax thereunder and the letter dated 1 April 2021 of the MOG which decided to the effect that the applicants were subject to the imposition of income tax under the ITA were made without being expressly authorised by the law and was therefore in excess of authority. (paras 62-65)

(3) The applicants had vested rights as Labuan entities with business activities not required to satisfy any substance requirement and were entitled to the benefit of being subjected to be charged to tax at a lower rate under the LBATA before the making of the 2021 Regulations. It was certainly impossible for all the applicants to now go back in time to 2019 to fulfil the substance requirements as prescribed by the 2021 Regulations, in order to avoid being subject to a higher tax rate under the ITA. To require the applicants to go back in time to comply with the substance requirements retrospectively was a grave injustice to the applicants. The Legislature could not have intended to confer such authority or power upon the MOF or delegate the authority or power to prescribe the substance requirement to apply retrospectively through the provisions of s. 2B(2) and s. 21 of the LBATA for the purpose of making regulations. For the purposes of delegated legislative provisions, the authority delegated to legislate by regulations had no power to legislate by the regulations to apply retrospectively so as to take away the vested rights of the citizens unless authorised expressly or by necessary implication by the parent Act, that was the LBATA in this case. (paras 74-79)

(4) The impugned decisions or actions being challenged were the two letters dated 5 February 2021 and 1 April 2021 issued by the respondents respectively, which were based on the validity of the 2018 Regulations that were found to be invalid. The applicants were entitled to apply for judicial review of the decisions in or actions by the two impugned letters of the respondents respectively without first applying to set aside the 2018 Regulations on the ground of their invalidity. The applicants were not precluded from contending that the 2018 Regulations were invalid in their applications for judicial review. (paras 86-89)

JUDGMENT

Wong Siong Tung J:

Introduction

[1] The three applications for judicial review, namely Application For Judicial Review No: LBN-25JR-75-5-2021 (HC); Application For Judicial Review No: LBN-25JR-18-4-2021 (HC) and Application For Judicial Review No: LBN-25-17-6-2021 (HC) were heard together.

[2] There were 103 similar applications for judicial review by various parties. The applications for judicial review heard together were among three of them.

[3] All the applicants in these 103 applications for judicial review were companies incorporated in the Federal Territory of Labuan under the Labuan Companies Act 1990 (Act 441).

[4] All the applicants in these applications for judicial review were said to be adversely affected by the alleged decisions made by the Minister of Finance (hereinafter referred to as "MOF") in his letter dated 1 April 2021.

[5] They all concerned the legal issues arising from Labuan Business Activity Tax (Requirements for Labuan Business Activity) Regulations 2018 [P.U.(A) 392/2018] and Labuan Business Activity Tax (Requirements for Labuan Business Activity) 2018 (Amendment) Regulations 2020 [P.U.(A) 375/2020], particularly concerning the entitlement of these applicants to be charged a lower tax at 3% on their chargeable profits under s. 4 of the Labuan Business Activity Tax Act 1990 (Act 445).

[6] These 103 applications for judicial review were tabulated under three different categories, namely category A, B and C as attached hereto.

[7] The parties concerned have agreed that the three cases heard by the court together should be the lead cases for the three categories cases as listed respectively in the tabulation.

[8] The parties concerned have agreed that the decision of the court made in these three lead cases shall apply and bind all cases under respective categories.

[9] On 2 September 2021, leave was granted to the applicants in the three lead cases to make application for judicial review for the reliefs as they prayed for.

[10] Thus, pursuant to the leave as granted, all the applicants in the three lead cases have filed their applications for judicial review which are heard together.

Brief Backgrounds And Legislative Changes

[11] The Offshore Companies Act 1990 (Act 441) was enacted in 1990 to provide for the incorporation, registration and administration of Labuan companies and foreign Labuan companies and for matters connected therewith. It came into force on 1 October 1990.

[12] In the same year, the Labuan Offshore Business Activity Tax Act 1990 (Act 445) was enacted to provide for the imposition, assessment and collection of tax on a Labuan business activity carried on by a Labuan entity in or from Labuan and for matters connected therewith. It also came into force on 1 October 1990.

[13] Under the Labuan Offshore Business Activity Tax Act 1990 (Act 445), an offshore company as defined therein carrying on an offshore business activity which is an offshore trading activity can elect to pay tax at the rate of 3% of the net profit under s. 4 of the said Act or to pay a flat tax of RM20,000 under s. 7 of the said Act.

[14] The Offshore Companies Act 1990 (Act 441) was amended and renamed as the Labuan Companies Act 1990 (Act 441) (hereinafter referred to as "LCA") by Offshore Companies (Amendment) Act 2010 (Act A1367) which came into effect on 11 February 2010.

[15] The Labuan Offshore Business Activity Tax Act 1990 (Act 445) was also amended and renamed as the Labuan Business Activity Tax Act 1990 (Act 445) (hereinafter referred to as "LBATA") by the Labuan Offshore Business Activity Tax (Amendment) Act 2010 (Act A1366) which came to into force on 11 February 2010.

[16] There were various amendments made to the LBATA subsequently.

[17] Section 76 of the Finance Act 2018 (Act 812) deleted s. 7 of the LBATA, thus abolished the option to pay a flat tax of RM20,000 which by s. 71(2) of the Finance Act 2019 (Act 823) comes into effect for the year of assessment 2020 and the years thereafter.

[18] The effect following the amendments made by the Finance Act 2018 (Act 812), and the Finance Act 2019 (Act 823) was that a Labuan entity engaged in Labuan business activity was subject to a tax of 3% on its chargeable profits for the specified year of assessment under s. 4 of the LBATA without the option to pay a flat tax of RM20,000.

[19] Section 2A(1) of the LBATA then conferred on the MOF the power on the recommendation of the Director General in writing to designate any activity carried on by any Labuan entity as a Labuan business activity.

[20] Section 2B(1) of the LBATA (which came into effect on 1 January 2019 as amended by s. 74 of the Finance Act 2018 (Act 812)) then provided that:

> (1) The Labuan entities:
> (a) shall be as specified in the Schedule; and
> (b) shall, for the purpose of the Labuan business activity, have:
> (i) an adequate number of full time employees in Labuan; and
> (ii) an adequate amount of annual operating expenditure in Labuan,
> as prescribed by the Minister by regulations made under this Act.
> (2) The Minister may, upon the recommendation of the Director General, by order published in the Gazette, amend the Schedule including for the purposes of declaring any other person as a Labuan entity."

[21] The Schedule of Labuan entity of LBATA is reproduced as follows:

SCHEDULE

LABUAN ENTITY

1. A Labuan company

2. A Labuan foundation established and registered under the Labuan Foundations Act 2010 [Act]10

3. A Labuan Islamic foundation established and registered under the Labuan Islamic Financial Services and Securities Act 2010
4. A Labuan Islamic partnership as defined in the Labuan Islamic Financial Services and Securities Act 2010
5. A Labuan limited partnership established and registered under the Labuan Limited Partnerships and Limited Liability Partnerships Act 2010
6. A Labuan limited liability partnership established and registered under the Labuan Limited Partnerships and Limited Liability Partnerships Act 2010
7. A Labuan Islamic trust as defined in the Labuan Islamic Financial Services and Securities Act 2010
8. A Labuan trust as defined in the Labuan Trusts Act 1996 [Act 554]
9. A Malaysian Islamic bank licensee as defined in the Labuan Islamic Financial Services and Securities Act 2010
10. A Malaysian bank licensee as defined in the Labuan Financial Services and Securities Act 2010
11. Any Labuan financial institutions as defined in the Labuan Financial Services Authority Act 1996 [Act 545]
12. Any person declared by the Minister to be a Labuan entity under subsection 2B(2).

[22] It is indisputable that all the applicants in the three lead cases are Labuan companies as defined under s. 2(1) of the LBATA and thus Labuan entities.

[23] With the amendments introduced by the Finance Act 2018 (Act 812) (ie, s. 76) and the Finance Act 2019 (Act 823) (ie, s. 71(2)), though the Labuan entity no longer has the option to choose a flat tax rate of RM20,000 for year of assessment for 2020 and the subsequent years, a Labuan entity however may under s. 3A of the LBATA, elect to have its chargeable profits subjected to tax under the Income Tax Act 1967. Once the election is made, it becomes irrevocable.

[24] On 31 December 2018, pursuant to s. 21(1)(a) of the LBATA then read together with s. 2B(1)(b) of the LBATA, the Deputy Prime Minister promulgated the Labuan Business Activity Tax (Requirements for Labuan Business Activity) Regulations 2018 (P.U.(A) 392/2018) (hereinafter referred to as "the 2018 Regulations") which came into effect on 1 January 2019.

[25] The 2018 Regulations provided a list of 21 of Labuan entities that carried out the different kinds of business activities as described and prescribed each of them with the minimum number of full time employees and the minimum amount of annual operating expenditure in Labuan (hereinafter called "substance requirements") for the purpose of the Labuan business activity of the Labuan entity as required under s. 2B(1)(b) of the LBATA to entitle to be subjected to a lower tax at 3% on their chargeable profits under s. 4 of the LBATA.

[26] On 28 January 2020, the Labuan Business Activity Tax (Amendment) Act 2020 (Act A1614) was enacted and came into force on 10 February 2020 which further amended the LBATA by inserting a new s. 2B(1A) therein which provided that:

> 2B(1A) A Labuan entity carrying on a Labuan business activity which fails to comply with regulations made under subsection (1) for a basis period for a year of assessment shall be charged to tax at the rate of twenty four per cent upon its chargeable profits for that year of assessment. (emphasis added)

[27] Section 1 of the Labuan Business Activity Tax (Amendment) Act 2020 (Act A1614) stipulated that the newly inserted s. 2B(1A) in the LBATA would take effect from the year of assessment 2020 and the subsequent years of assessment.

[28] On 23 December 2020, the MOF further made the Labuan Business Activity Tax (Requirements for Labuan Business Activity) 2018 (Amendment) Regulations 2020 [P.U.(A) 375/2020] (hereinafter referred to as "the 2020 Regulations").

[29] The 2020 Regulations introduced changes to the substance requirements for specific items listed in the business activities of Labuan entities, as originally set out in the 2018 Regulations.

[30] Among the amendments, item 22 was added to the list of business activities, specifically directed at Labuan entities that "undertakes pure equity holding activities" and also prescribed the corresponding substance requirements.

[31] Furthermore, the 2020 Regulations also provided that the provisions therein are deemed to have come into operation retrospectively on 1 January 2019.

[32] On 31 December 2020, the Finance Act 2020 (Act 831) was enacted which further amended s. 2B of the LBATA and rendered it to read as follows:

> Labuan entity
> 2B(1) The Labuan entities:
> (a) shall be as specified in the Schedule; and
> (b) shall, for the purposes of the Labuan business activity:
> (i) in relation to a Labuan trading activity:

(A) have an adequate number of full time employees in Labuan; and

(B) have an adequate amount of annual operating expenditure in Labuan, as prescribed by the Minister by regulations made under this Act; and

(ii) in relation to a Labuan non-trading activity:

(A) have an adequate number of full time employees in Labuan;

(B) have an adequate amount of annual operating expenditure in Labuan; and

(C) comply with any condition in relation to control and management in Labuan,

as prescribed by the Minister by regulations made under this Act.

[(1) Subs. Act 812: s. 74; (b) Subs. Act 831: s. 56]

(1A) A Labuan entity carrying on a Labuan business activity which fails to comply with regulations made under subsection (1) for a basis period for a year of assessment shall be charged to tax at the rate of twenty four per cent upon its chargeable profits for that year of assessment.

[(1A) Ins. Act A1614: s. 3]

(1B) For the purposes of subsection (1A):

(a) the chargeable profits shall be the net profits as reflected in the audited accounts in respect of such Labuan business activity of the Labuan entity for the basis period for that year of assessment; and

(b) sections 6, 6A, 6B, 6C, 6D, 8 and 8A shall apply, with necessary modifications.

[(1B) Ins. Act 831: s. 56]

(2) The Minister may, upon the recommendation of the Director General, by order published in the Gazette, amend the Schedule including for the purposes of declaring any other person as a Labuan entity.

[2B. Ins. Act A1366: s. 5]

[33] There is no serious dispute that the applicants in Application For Judicial Review No: LBN-25JR-75-5-2021 (HC) (category A) and in Application For Judicial Review No: LBN-25JR-18-4-2021 (HC) (category B) along with their respective business activities were not listed in the list of Labuan entities specified under the 2018 Regulations as amended by the 2020 Regulations. Essentially, their business activities did not fall within any of the 22 Labuan entities outlined in the 2018 Regulations, as amended by the 2020 Regulations.

[34] The applicants in the application for Judicial Review No. LBN-25-17-6-2021 (HC) (category C) claimed that they were not listed among the 22 Labuan entities specified in the 2018 Regulations as amended by the 2020 Regulations and that their business activities, categorised as "Labuan non-trading activity" were granted tax exemption by the Ministry of Finance (MOF) under s. 2A of the LBATA prior to the enactment of these Regulations.

[35] Subsequently, the Deputy Director of the Inland Revenue Board issued a letter dated 5 February 2021 (exh. TKS66 at pp. 6197 to 6214 of encl. 4 in Judicial Review No: LBN-25JR-75-5-2021) to the Association of Labuan Trust Companies (ALTC), of which the applicants were members. In the letter, the Deputy Director of the Inland Revenue Board stated that the 2020 Regulations "has caused Labuan entity carrying on "Other Trading" activities not to be included in the meaning of "Labuan Entity" under sub-s. 2B(1) Labuan Business Activity Tax Act (LBATA) 1990 and are required to submit Tax Return Form (ITRF) under Income Tax Act (ITA) 1967".

[36] In the aforementioned letter, the Deputy Director of the Inland Revenue also specified the deadlines for submitting the tax returns under the Income Tax Act 1967 (ITA 1967) for the year of assessment 2019 and subsequent years.

[37] The Deputy Director of the Inland Revenue Board requested that the contents of the letter be disseminated to all members of the ALTC.

[38] Thereafter, by a letter dated 1 April 2021 (exh. TKS65 at p. 6192 to 6196 of encl. 4 in Judicial Review No: LBN-25JR-75-5-2021) written by MOF to ALTC, the MOF responded to various earlier letters from ALTC regarding the position of Labuan entities not listed or specified with substance requirements under the 2020 Regulations. The MOF stated his position on the matter under item 2 in the tabulation in lampiran 1 which is reproduced as follows:

	Labuan entities carrying on non-listed activities are to be taxed under the ITA 1967 and not the LBATA 1990 contrary to Malaysian Law and well-established taxing principles, and universally held taxation principles. Non listed activities would continue to be taxed under the LBATA 1990 at 3% if the activities fall under the definition of "Labuan Trading Activity".	Aktiviti general trading and services tidak dimasukkan sebagai salah satu aktiviti Labuan kerana aktiviti ini tidak termasuk dalam aktiviti Pusat Perniagaan dan Kewangan Antarabangsa Labuan. Bagi aktiviti perniagaan yang tidak tersenarai adalah secara automatik tertakluk kepada pengenaan cukai pendapatan di bawah ACP 1967. Insentif galakan cukai untuk aktiviti perdagangan ada ditawarkan di bawah Akta Cukai Pendapatan 1967 melalui insentif percukaian Hab Prinsipal dan Syarikat Perdagangan Antarabangsa Malaysia (MITC) tertakluk kepada syarat yang ditetapkan.

[39] The MOF endorsed and accepted the stance or position put forth by the Deputy Director of the Inland Revenue Board, stating that Labuan business activities not listed in the Schedule to the 2018 Regulations, as amended by the 2020 Regulations, would automatically be subject to income tax under the ITA 1967 and thus required to submit Tax Return Form (ITRF) under the ITA 1967. Consequently, the applicants were no longer eligible for the lower tax rate of 3% on their chargeable profits under s. 4 of the LBATA.

[40] Thereafter, all the applicants filed the applications seeking leave to apply for judicial review of the decision as they contended made by the MOF in his letter dated 1 April 2021. On 2 September 2021, their applications for leave were granted.

[41] Following these developments, on 19 November 2021, the MOF made the Labuan Business Activity Tax (Requirements for Labuan Business Activity) Regulations 2021 (hereinafter referred to as "the 2021 Regulations").

[42] The 2021 Regulations revoked and replaced the 2018 Regulations.

[43] The 2021 Regulations was made to come into operation or into force retrospectively on 1 January 2019.

[44] The 2021 Regulations by the First Schedule provided a list of 20 Labuan entities carrying on Labuan trading activities and prescribed the substance requirement for these entities.

[45] Additionally, the 2021 Regulations by the Second Schedule, also provided two Labuan entities carrying on a Labuan non-trading activity along with their corresponding prescribed substance requirement.

[46] Based on the 2021 Regulations, the applicants in Application For Judicial Review No: LBN-25JR-75-5-2021 (HC) (category A); and in Application For Judicial Review No: LBN-25JR-18-4-2021 (HC) (category B) would fall within item 20 of the First Schedule of the 2021 Regulations retrospectively. In order to be eligible for the lower tax rate under the LBATA for years of assessment (YA) 2019 and 2020, they would be required to meet the prescribed substance requirements as set out in the 2021 Regulations.

[47] Item 20 of the First Schedule to the 2021 Regulations is reproduced as follows:

FIRST SCHEDULE
[Regulation 2 and 4]

(1) No.	(2) Labuan entity carrying on a Labuan trading activity	(3) Minimum number of full time employees in Labuan	(4) Minimum amount of annual operating expenditure in Labuan (RM)
20	Labuan entity that carries on any one or more of the following business activity: (a) administrative services; (b) accounting services; (c) legal services; (d) backroom processing services; (e) payroll services; (f) talent management services; (g) agency services;	2	50,000

	(h) insolvency related services; (i) management services other than Labuan company management under item 17

[48] Based on the 2021 Regulations, the applicants in Application For Judicial Review No: LBN-25-17-6-2021 (HC) (category C) would fall and be categorised under item 2 of the Second Schedule thereunder. Retrospectively, they would be required to meet the substance requirements prescribed for item 2 in order to be eligible for the lower tax rate of 3% under the LBATA for the years of assessment (YA) 2019 and 2020.

[49] Item 2 of the Second Schedule to the 2021 Regulations is also reproduced as follows:

FIRST SCHEDULE
[Regulation 2 and 4]

(1) No.	(2) Labuan entity carrying on a Labuan non-trading activity	(3) Minimum number of full time employees in Labuan	(4) Minimum amount of annual operating expenditure in Labuan (RM)
2	Labuan entity that undertakes pure equity holding activities	Exempted under the Labuan Business Activity Tax (Exemption) Order 2020 [P.U. (A) 177/2020]	20,000.00

The Legality Of The 2018 Regulations Made By Deputy Prime Minister And Amended By The 2020 Regulations Made By The Minister Of Finance

[50] The 2018 Regulations which first prescribed the substance requirements was made by the Deputy Prime Minister.

[51] However, by s. 2 of the LBATA, the Minister authorised to prescribe the substance requirements by regulations under s. 2B(1)(b) of the LBATA is the Minister for the time being charged with the responsibility for finance, meaning the Minister having control and responsibility with the matter, who is the Minister of Finance.

[52] By s. 8(2) of the Interpretation Acts 1948 and 1967 provides that:

> 8 References to "the High Court", "the Minister" and "the Treasury"
> (2) A reference to "the Minister" is a reference to the Minister for the time being responsible for the matter in connection with which the reference is made.
> (2) … (emphasis added)

[53] Section 2 of the Ministerial Functions Act 1969 provides:

> 2 Functions, styles and titles of Ministers
> (1) The Yang di-Pertuan Agong may by order notify in the Gazette:
> (a) that a Minister has been conferred with any functions or has been charged with any responsibility in respect of a particular department or subject or that any transfer, to any other Minister, of any of the functions or responsibility referred to has been made;
> (b) that any style or title has been assigned to any Ministers (except the Prime Minister) or that any change in any style and title referred to has been made.
> (2) An order made by the Yang di-Pertuan Agong under this section:
> (a) may provide for the transfer of any property, rights or liabilities held, enjoyed or incurred by any Minister in connection with any functions conferred or transferred; and
> (b) may contain such other provisions as may be necessary or expedient for the purpose of giving effect to the order.
> (emphasis added)

[54] It seems that there is no order of notification in the Gazette by the Yang di-Pertuan Agong conferring or designating the Deputy Prime Minister with the functions and responsibility for the country's finance during the time when the 2018 Regulations were enacted by the Deputy Prime Minister.

[55] In accordance with the maxim delegatus non potest delegare, a statutory power must be exercised only by the body or officer on whom it has been conferred, unless sub-delegation of the power is authorised by express words or necessary implication.

See: State Public Service Commission, Sarawak v. Sarjit Singh Khaira [2000] 4 CLJ 245; [2000] 4 MLJ 353 (FC); PP v. Kit Chee Wan [1998] 5 CLJ 582; [1999] 1 MLJ 16; and M Ratnavale v. The Government Of The Federation Of Malaya [1961] 1 LNS 58; [1963] 1 MLJ 393.

[56] Statutory provisions in respect of sub-delegation are strictly construed. See: M Ratnavale v. The Government Of The Federation Of Malaya (supra).

[57] There is no provisions in the LBATA to empower or authorise the Minister of Finance or anybody to further sub-delegate the power to make regulations under s. 2B(1)(b) and s. 21 of the LBATA.

[58] The power conferred upon the Minister of Finance to make regulations to prescribe the substance requirements under s. 2B(1)(b) and s. 21 of the LBATA cannot be further sub-delegated to any other persons.

See: Ang Ming Lee & Ors v. Menteri Kesejahteraan Bandar, Perumahan Dan Kerajaan Tempatan & Anor And Other Appeals [2020] 1 CLJ 162; [2020] 1 MLJ 281.

[59] Strictly construed, the 2018 Regulations are therefore ultra vires and invalid.

See: PP v. Tan Kim Yong [1998] 1 CLJ 74.

[60] That being the case, the 2020 Regulations made by the Minister of Finance to amend the 2018 Regulations which was not validly made at the first place, has no effect too.

[61] In the hearing of their applications for judicial review, the applicants are not precluded from calling into question, the legality of these regulations.

See: Syed Ibrahim Syed Mohd & Ors v. Esso Production Malaysian Incorporated [2004] 1 CLJ 889; [2004] 2 MLJ 49.

No Substance Requirements Prescribed For The Business Activity Of Applicants And No Specific Provision To Disqualify Applicants To Be Taxed Under The LBATA

[62] As the 2018 Regulations and 2020 Regulations were not validly made, as at the time the Deputy Director of Inland Revenue Board issued the impugned letter dated 5 February 2021 (exh. TKS66, at pp. 6197-6214 of encl. 4 in Judicial Review No: LBN-25JR-75-5-2021) and at the time the MOF issued the impugned letter dated 1 April 2021, the applicants were Labuan entities as specified in the Schedule referred to under s. 2B(1)(a) of the LBATA carried on Labuan business activities without any substance requirements under s. 2B(1)(b) lawfully prescribed by any valid regulations made and in force at the material times.

[63] Tax statutes have to be construed strictly. There must be clear and expressed provisions in the statutes to render a taxpayer liable to be charged to tax. Any ambiguity in the provisions in the tax statutes in that respect has to be construed in favour of a taxpayer.

See: Exxon Chemical (M) Sdn Bhd v. Ketua Pengarah Hasil Dalam Negeri [2005] 4 CLJ 810; [2006] 1 MLJ 428 (CA), Director-General Of Inland Revenue v. Highlands Malaya Plantations Ltd [1988] 1 LNS 145; [1988] 2 MLJ 99 at 104 (SC) and *National Land Finance Co-Operative Society Ltd v. Director General Of Inland Revenu*e [1993] 4 CLJ 339; [1994] 1 MLJ 99 at 106 (SC).

[64] That being the case, at the material times the applicants therefore, were only subject to be charged to tax under s. 4 of the LBATA and not under the ITA by s. 3B thereunder.

[65] That being the case, the letter dated 5 February 2021 issued by the DGIR relying on the invalid 2018 Regulations and requiring the applicants to submit the Tax Return Form under the ITA to be charged to tax thereunder and the letter dated 1 April 2021 of the MOF which decided to the effect that the applicants were subject to the imposition of income tax under the ITA were made without expressly authorised by the law and therefore in excess of authority.

[66] Senior Federal Counsels for the respondents have not submitted otherwise.

The 2021 Regulations Cannot Have Retrospective Effect To Take Away The Vested Right Of The Applicants

[67] Senior Federal Counsels for the respondents submitted that the applicants' applications for judicial review have become academic because of the making of the 2021 Regulations by the MOF on 19 November 2021 gazetted as P.U. (A) 423/2021.

[68] The 2021 Regulations seems to provide a comprehensive list of the applicable Labuan business activities of Labuan entity under the LBATA and prescribed with the substance requirements which covered the Business activities of all the applicants to take effect retrospectively on 1 January 2019, going back some two years in time, which the applicants have to comply so as not to be subject to the higher tax under the ITA.

[69] Senior Federal Counsels submitted that the applicants' issues were resolved and that the applications for judicial review have been overtaken by the 2021 Regulations.

[70] They submitted that "the factual substratum underlying the question of the case has ceased" and relying on the Federal Court decision in Bar Council Malaysia v. Tun Dato' Seri Arifin Zakaria & Ors (Persatuan Peguam-peguam Muslim Malaysia, Pencelah) And Another Case [2018] 10 CLJ 129; [2018] MLJU 1288. They submitted that the applicants' applications for judicial review should be withdrawn by the applicants if not, dismissed.

[71] I do not agree that the matters have become academic, particularly in view of the findings that the 2018 Regulations and the 2020 Regulations were invalid.

[72] Firstly, the respondents seemed to maintain the validity of their decisions made in their letters dated 5 February 2021 and 1 April 2021 respectively.

[73] Secondly, the 2021 Regulations were made to apply retrospectively with effect on 1 January 2019.

[74] The applicants have the vested rights as Labuan entities with business activities not required to satisfy any substance requirement and entitled to the benefit of being subjected to be charged to tax at a lower rate under the LBATA before the making of the 2021 Regulations.

[75] It is certainly impossible for all the applicants now to go back in time to 2019 to fulfil the substance requirements as prescribed by the 2021 Regulations, in order to avoid being subject to a higher tax rate under the Income Tax Act (ITA).

[76] I also noted the submission of Federal Counsel for the respondents that the tax regime under LBATA is based on preceding year basis and not current year basis as under the ITA.

[77] To require the applicants to go back in time to comply with the substance requirements retrospectively is a grave injustice to the applicants. The Legislature could not have intended to confer such authority or power upon the MOF or delegate the authority or power to prescribe the substance requirement to apply retrospectively through the provisions of ss. 2B(2) and 21 of the LBATA for the purpose of making regulations.

See: Lim Phin Khian v. Kho Su Ming [1996] 1 CLJ 529; [1996] 1 MLJ 1 (FC).

[78] There is no express provision in the LBATA which empowers the MOF to make regulations to apply retrospectively.

[79] For the purposes of delegated legislative provisions, the authority delegated to legislate by regulations has no power to legislate by the regulations to apply retrospectively so as to take away the vested rights of the citizens unless authorised expressly or by necessary implication by the parent Act, that is the LBATA in this case.

See: Kerajaan Malaysia v. Wong Pot Heng [1997] 2 CLJ 188; [1997] 1 MLJ 437 (FC); and Loh Kooi Choon v. Government Of Malaysia [1975] 1 LNS 90; [1977] 2 MLJ 187 (FC).

[80] Section 20 of the Interpretation Acts 1948 and 1967 has to be narrowly and strictly construed not to take away the vested rights of the applicants and subject to s. 30 of the same Act.

A See: National Land Finance Co-Operative Society Ltd v. Director General Of Inland Revenue [1993] 4 BLJ 33; [1994] 1 MLJ 99 (SC); Kerajaan Malaysia v. Wong Pot Heng [1997] 2 CLJ 188; [1997] 1 MLJ 437 (FC); Ketua Pengarah Hasil Dalam Negeri v. Malaysian Co-Operative Insurance Society Ltd [2000] 2 CLJ 149; [2000] 1 MLJ 561 (CA); Syed Ibrahim Syed Mohd & Ors v. Esso Production
B Malaysian Incorporated [2004] 1 CLJ 889; [2004] 2 MLJ 49 (CA); Multi-Purpose Holdings Bhd v. Ketua Pengarah Hasil Dalam Negeri [2006] 1 CLJ 1121; [2006] 2 MLJ 498 (CA); Society Of La Salle Brothers v. Ketua Pengarah Hasil Dalam Negeri [2017] 8 CLJ 298; [2018] 1 MLJ 376 (CA); and Engineering Analysis Centre Of Excellence Private Ltd v. Commissioner Of Income Tax And
C Another 23 ITLR 569.

[81] The 2021 Regulations made by MOF cannot take away the vested rights of the applicants. The 2021 Regulations has to be construed to apply and I hold that they apply only to the applicants prospectively.

D Whether The Letters Of DGIR And MOF Impugned Adversely Affected The Applicants

[82] Learned Senior Federal Counsels for the respondents again submitted that the applicants were not "adversely affected" by the impugned letters issued by the DGIR and the MOF respectively as those letters were merely E expressions of opinion or understanding of the DGIR and MOF respectively.

[83] They further contended that the applicants had not submitted any tax returns or documentation to the Inland Revenue Board of Malaysia, and that no assessment or decision had been made by the DGIR regarding each individual applicant.

F [84] These arguments were raised by learned Senior Federal Counsels during the leave application for judicial review by the applicants, and they were within their rights to raise them again during the substantive hearing of the applications for judicial review.

G [85] After considering the submissions of learned Senior Federal Counsels, learned counsel for the applicants and revisiting the issues raised in relation to these matters, for the reasons as given in my grounds of decision dated 2 September 2021 granting the applicants leave for judicial review, I maintain my finding that the decisions if not, the action by two letters of the respondents respectively adversely affected the applicants and therefore
H amendable to judicial review.

The Applicants' Application Filed Out Of Time

[86] Learned Senior Federal Counsels for the respondents submitted that the applications herein were out of time by contending that the grounds for
I the applications first arose and were communicated when the 2018 Regulations were gazetted on 31 December 2018.

[87] I respectfully disagree with this submission. Firstly, the impugned decisions or actions being challenged are the two letters dated 5 February 2021 and 1 April 2021 issued by the respondents respectively, which were based on the validity of the 2018 Regulations that I have found to be invalid.

[88] The applicants are entitled to apply for judicial review of the decisions in or actions by the two impugned letters of the respondents respectively without first applying to set aside the 2018 Regulations on the ground of their invalidity.

[89] As I have previously held, the applicants are not precluded from contending that the 2018 Regulations were invalid in their applications for judicial review.

Pronouncement And Orders

[90] In the premises, in respect Application For Judicial Review No: LBN-25JR-75-5-2021 (HC); Application For Judicial Review No: LBN-25JR-18-4-2021 (HC) and Application For Judicial Review No. LBN-25-17-6-2021 (HC), I granted the applicants therein, the following orders:

(i) an order of certiorari that the decision of the first respondent contained in his letter dated 5 February 2021 be removed into this court and quashed;

(ii) an order of certiorari that the decision of the second defendant contained in his letter dated 1 April 2021 be removed into this court and quashed;

(iii) a declaration that the 2018 Regulations and the 2020 Regulations are invalid in law; and

(iv) a declaration that for the purpose to be charged to tax by the first respondent, the 2021 Regulations only applies, operates and has effect on the applicants prospectively as from the date of its making (ie, 19 November 2021) and has no retrospective operation, effect and application upon the applicants prior to the date of its making.

[91] The applicants in these three applications for judicial review are entitled to costs which I allow in the sum of RM25,000 for each of the three applications.

[92] Pursuant to the agreement between the parties, I grant similar orders in favour of the other applicants in their applications as listed under respective category A, B and C tabulated (except applicant in LBN-25JR-4-3-2021 – Palmsphere (L) Bhd (item no. 3)) and as attached hereto with costs of RM1,000 for each of the applications.
